1. [redacted] Met with Mr. John Martiny, Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and reviewed the current status of pay legislation and the right of privacy bills. Subcommittee hearing scheduled by Mr. Udall for next Monday on the various pay proposals relating to Federal employees was cancelled and has not been rescheduled. In consequence a delay of a week or more is anticipated in the proposed hearings on pay legislation. Legislative proposals concerning right of privacy have been referred to the Committee and have not been assigned for subcommittee consideration. Until such assignment is made no consideration will be given these proposals in the Post Office and Civil Service Committee.

4. [redacted] Representative William Steiger (R., Wis.) called to seek advice on the risks to a U.S. citizen who had been convicted of crimes in Czechoslovakia to return to that country to visit with his dying mother. Mr. Steiger said that he had been dealing with State on this and I said that this was the agency with which he should be dealing. Later I was able to provide Mr. Steiger with certain factual information concerning [redacted] which I indicated was available to the Department of State. Mr. Steiger was most generous in his appreciation.
